

Once again big business is trying to control everything. XM radio is great product and should left alone. Why don't local stations work harder to keep their listeners. Instead of trying to hand cuff inovative people. Chaulk another one up for the Bush camp.. ?Howard Stern and XM Radio whos nextis it November yet